

OXFORD ART SOCIETY

Members' exhibiting at Artweeks, Oxfordshire Artists' Festival May 2009

On a glorious sunny Sunday 24th May I cycled over to see Alan and Sue Mynall, society members, at their home and studio in Radley. Both were participating in Artweeks and they made me feel very welcome, offering a much appreciated iced water upon my arrival.

The styles, subject matter and approach are quite different; Sue an illustrator in watercolour and Alan mainly painting portraits in oils. Alan has just received a commission so was looking forward to a busy month ahead. Friends and new faces were dropping by including a mother and her eight year old daughter Olivia who wanted to meet Sue as she wanted to become an illustrator!

Sue and Alan capture the spirit and enjoyment of exhibiting to a wider audience and are clearly very committed to their work.

Words and pictures by Stephen Gray, OAS, corn beef sandwiches by Sue

(photos, l to r), Alan and Sue flying the flag for Artweeks in Willow Way;
Tracey and Andy came from nearby Kennington on their 1000cc motorcycle trike, with Sue's work in the background;

Continued...

OXFORD ART SOCIETY

Members' exhibiting at Artweeks, Oxfordshire Artists' Festival May 2009

(photos l to r), Sue with work by both artists in the hallway; Alan in his studio surrounded by his paintings;