

OXFORD ART SOCIETY

Members' exhibition, Town Hall, Oxford, April 2009

The Society recently held it's Annual Show in April and had over 900 visitors offering some very favourable comments including:

'So much talent and imagination', 'Wonderful range of styles and techniques', 'well presented', 'exceptional' and 'very high standard'.

Painting, print and sculpture were displayed and the quality of artwork was reflected in the number of sales as the Society continues to demonstrate a high level of skill, creativity and diversity.

The show was opened by Michael Stanley, Director, Modern Art Oxford

